EXTRA SPECIAL EVENT – MAY ONLY HAPPEN THIS YEAR!

12 Lessons for Personal Development – Based on the metaphysical classic: “Love Is Letting Go Of Fear” by Gerald Jampolsky, MD.

Whether you've read "Love Is Letting Go Of Fear" years ago or it is brand new to you - this small book (with cartoons!) can help you to get off the treadmill and move into the live you love to live. Instead of being on your own, you'll have my experience of living these lessons for the past 30 years, plus the rich resource of the experiences the group will bring to discuss each week. This is an ideal learning and implementing environment. I truly believe these few weeks can change your life for the better. Each week of the series builds on the previous ones.
